Angels in Great Neck

According to Wikipedia - Angels are messengers of God in the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament and the Quran.

When I think of angels, I think of heavenly beings that watch over others sent by God.

Some of you may know that my mom, Toni Lieberman, passed away in June of this year. Among other things she was an avid bridge player and traveler. Because of these passions and her passion for Jacke, her miniature poodle, my mom hired Naomi and Jamey Garfinkel of Great Neck the founders and owners of Pet Sitters Club, Inc.

For about 6 years Naomi and her team would come to my mom's house regularly to feed, play and walk Jacke.

In July of 2009 my mom fell and she began to rely more on Naomi — for helping with Jacke and with many other little and not so little house hold chores, bringing in the mail, taking out the garbage, picking up medication from the pharmacy. Naomi is a huge resource. She helped my mom find someone to fix her curtains. Jamey was always incredibly kind to my mom. He bought and changed some batteries for my mom's smoke detectors, changed some outside lights and even purchased and delivered dog food.

The list goes on and on.

The two of them and their colleagues became angels. Even though my mom had recovered from her fall she kept them on, they became friends, confidants and true godsend.

They came to have a special relationship, one that anyone would cherish forever.

So what do I hope that you will gain from reading this?

Knowledge and trust that Naomi and her husband and their company are truly more than just what their name implies a pet sitters club.

They are reliable responsible caring souls, totally committed to truly serving their clients' needs.

When my mom was in the hospital, I relied on them to enter my mom's home and maintain all sense of order; they did it in the most respectful and trustworthy manner.

And now that my mom is gone – and Jacke, the mini poodle is with my family, Naomi continues in our lives. Yes, from the business perspective she checks on the house but more, so much more, she has become our friend and to me very personally a huge special connection to my mom that I don't want to lose.

Should you ever need or simply want a very special and lovely couple to 'help you' with your pet or with your mail — know that an angel is there ready and willing and very able.
